Learning Objectives

MedBridge

Wheelchair Seating Assessment: The Mat Assessment

Michelle L. Lange, OTR/L, ABDA, ATP/SMS

Course Objectives:

• The participant will be able to list three components of a mat assessment.
• The participant will be able to describe the appropriate steps in assessing available hip and knee flexion for a seated position.
• The participant will be able to describe where postural support is required in a wheelchair seating system based on the mat assessment.

Chapter 1: Introduction to the Mat Assessment

• The participant will be able to list three components of a mat assessment.

Chapter 2: The Mat Assessment: Supine

• The participant will be able to describe the appropriate steps in assessing available hip and knee flexion for a seated position.
• The participant will be able to describe where postural support is required in a wheelchair seating system based on the mat assessment.

Chapter 3: The Mat Assessment: Sitting

• The participant will be able to describe the appropriate steps in assessing available hip and knee flexion for a seated position.
• The participant will be able to describe where postural support is required in a wheelchair seating system based on the mat assessment.

Chapter 4: The Mat Assessment: Conclusion

• The participant will be able to describe the appropriate steps in assessing available hip and knee flexion for a seated position.
• The participant will be able to describe where postural support is required in a wheelchair seating system based on the mat assessment.