Learning Objectives

MedBridge
Upper Extremity Strategies Along the Post-Stroke Recovery Continuum
Dorian Rose, PhD, PT

Course Objectives

• Create an appropriate plan of care for an individual with minimal to no active upper extremity movement
• Explain the rationale underlying task-oriented training and the key features of this training, in turn designing treatment programs utilizing these features
• Create an independent practice program for a patient with mild upper extremity paresis