Learning Objectives

Upon completion of this course, the online learner will be able to:

Chapter 2: Introduction to Acute Care
- Describe the six elements in the continuum of acute care

Chapter 3: Guidelines for Assessment of Body Functions & Structure
- Name the four primary guidelines for safe and optimal care

Chapter 4: Observation of a Patient Assessment
- Diagram the components of the International Classification of Functioning, Disability and Health (ICF) and describe how each applies to the assessment and intervention of the stroke survivor in the acute care setting

Chapter 5: Bedside Assessment of Swallowing
- Name four symptoms of aspiration
- Describe how a patient with aspiration precautions should be positioned