

---

Learning Objectives

MedBridge

Home Health Assessment Part 1: Subjective and Objective Data Gathering

Cindy Krafft, PT, MS

Dee Kornetti, PT, MA

Chapter 1: Model of Care Delivery and OASIS Impact on the Therapy Assessment

- Discuss adequate preparation for a home health therapy assessment
- Determine the necessary level of past medical history for home health patients
- Utilize strategies for effectively making the initial connection with the patient

Chapter 2: Gathering Meaningful Subjective Information

- Discuss key focus areas of subjective information
- Examine interview strategies that use open-ended questions to gather critical pieces of information
- Connect specific subjective information to content areas of routine documentation to increase support for medical necessity

Chapter 3: Selecting Tests and Measures Part 1

- Discuss core quantifiable information that should be considered on initial assessments
  - Range of Motion
  - Muscle Strength
    - Arm Curl Test
    - 30-sec Chair Stand Test
  - Balance
    - Tinetti-Poma
  - Balance Confidence
    - ABC
  - Mobility
    - Timed Up & Go

Chapter 4: Selecting Tests and Measures Part 2

- Discuss core quantifiable information that should be considered on initial assessments
  - Aerobic Capacity
    - 2-Minute Step Test
  - Gait Velocity
    - 10 ft. Walk Test
  - Modified Borg RPE
    - 0 – 10 Scale

-
- Pain
  - Cognition
    - MoCA