

---

Learning Objectives

MedBridge
Deconstructing Documentation for Home Care
Jennifer DeRosa, OT/L, CAPS

Chapter 1: Checking the Pulse of Homecare

- Discuss perceptions of documentation being laborious and time consuming
- Establish an understanding of the Triple Aim in healthcare and the role documentation plays in capturing the value and skill provided
- Discuss current healthcare climate and impetus for change

Chapter 2: Meaningful Documentation: Showing Your Value

- Review Medicare expectation of medical necessity
- Introduce SBAR template for documentation of all patient encounters
- Define the components of the SBAR as compared to the traditional SOAP note format
- Define need for documenting skilled interventions provided and patient's response to treatment
- Discuss word choice tips when documenting skilled interventions

Chapter 3: Take Home Templates and Tips

- Define holistic care planning and client driven care, meaningful unique outcomes
- Instruct in components of holistic outcome measures
- Describe effective use of "safely" as a meaningful outcome measure
- Introduce FAST goals template
- Self-reflection-rate confidence now on 1-10 scale